MIRAGE

New Haven High School

New Haven, Indiana

Volume XIII

Allen County Public Library
900 Webster Street
PO Box 2270
Fort Wayne, IN 46801-2270

When we, the Class of 1952, started our high school career in the fall of 1948, the school was much too small to take care of the many educational needs of its students. During our freshman and sophomore years, a new and modern elementary school was built. This new school was dedicated in the fall of 1950.

During the summer between our sophomore and junior years many changes were taking place. New glass block windows made the outside of our school more modern. The classrooms were painted, new desks were installed, and some fluorescent lights were added. The addition of hundreds of new books in a modern, well equipped library encouraged reading and studying in a pleasant atmosphere.

Colorful kitchen units added to the attractiveness of the remodeled home economics department.

When we came back for our senior year, we found a new chemistry and physics laboratory and a new biology room. The industrial arts and shop rooms are being enlarged and modernized. Other changes and improvements in other departments are planned.

So we, the seniors, looking at our school now, can point to it with pride and truthfully say our school is one of the best.

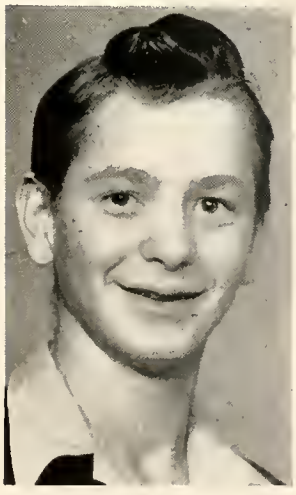
* * *

For three years we have dreamed of being seniors. Now, having reached that goal, we find the time rapidly passing. With its end come many cherished memories—the many bewildered days as freshmen; our sophomore year marked by silliness; the pride as juniors of being upperclassmen and the fun involved in presenting the Prom "Blue Moon." In our last year we had wonderful times producing the "Yankee King,"—the reception, Senior Day, and the climax—commencement.

Our thanks go to our wonderful sponsors for the help they have given us these four years.



This space is dedicated to the memory of Harold Lamle, who was a member of this class at the time of his passing in April, 1951.

During our freshman year, Harold served as class treasurer.

The most popular function of the Student Council is to sponsor the annual Snowball Hop. Christmas and Thanksgiving convocations and all assembly programs are arranged through the Student Council.

The Student Council is affiliated with the National Honor Society in that the organizations are both national in scope. The two groups join in a banquet each spring. Student Council is the service branch of the organization.

Monitors for the halls are selected and scheduled by the vice-president of Student Council.

The STUDENTS' HANDBOOK was edited by the Student Council last year and is kept "up to date" periodically by the Council.

The Concert Band, under the direction of Mr. Richard Guthier, is a busy organization from the opening time of school until the last day. The band has thirty-nine members.

During the fall the band marched at football games and participated in a marching contest at Auburn. Several trophies were won including the sweepstakes, inspection and first place in their division.

The activities of the winter included playir g at basketball games and pep sessions. On February 9 the annual district solo and ensemble contest was held in Fort Wayne. Eleven solos and ensembles participated in the state contest at Butler University on February 23.

The band also appeared in the district band contest in the spring.

As is the custom, the band presented their annual winter and spring concert and took part in the Commencement exercises on May 23. In the spring the banquet was held at which awards were presented.

Spreading sunshine and cheer to others has been the aim of the Sunshine Society.

"Neighbors" was the theme of the State Sunshine Convention on April 7, 1951, when the New Haven Sunshiners were hostesses to 2500 girls from all corners of Indiana.

This year a Valentine banquet was held. To climax the year's activities was the tea for mothers and ideal ladies on May 9.

Future Farmers of America

One of our newest school organizations, the F. F. A., sponsored by Mr. Kenneth Bandelier, has, as its ideal and goal, to teach the new and better methods of farming.

Since this is the first year for the F. F. A. to appear in our school, the membership is now only eighteen. However, within a short time we are expecting to see many more boys become interested in this organization.

One of the activities this year was the sponsorship of a square dance following the New Haven-Huntertown basketball game.

In basketball a boy must play at least half of the total number of quarters and be a member of the sectional tournament team. In track a boy must earn ten points for his team in inter-school competition. In baseball a boy must play half of the entire innings. All these qualifications must be accompanied by proper training rules.

Everett Cass: Junior High and Freshman Coach.

Scott Armstrong: Football, Track and Assistant Basketball Coach.

The 1951 Football Bulldogs came through the season with a highly respectable 4-won and 4-lost record. The team was small, and because of this was easily injured. Injuries started with the very first game, when quarterback Dick Mattingly suffered a broken leg. He was lost to the team for the remainder of the season. There were other minor injuries which disabled the team, but most of these were healed and the boys were usually ready by the time the next game had rolled around.

All in all, taking all facts into consideration, the 1951 Football team had a successful season. Seven seniors are lost by graduation, including that punch of Gladieux and Roemer and the sensational line play of Darvin Strader.

The freshman football team is potentially the strongest group of freshmen to play in the history of the sport at New Haven. Their two year Junior High School experience with one undefeated season bears out the above statement.

Huntertown and New Haven during the County Tournament

The 1951-52 New Haven basketball team was the best in many years. This small team did an excellent job throughout the season for a 15-won and a 6-loss record.

The team lacked height and they lacked weight, but when it came to team spirit and desire to win, the boys were high on both counts.

A high point of the season was the seven game winning streak with which the team ended the regular season. Another point which stood out more yet was the fact that the Bulldogs became the first county team in two years to defeat the County Champ Huntertown Wildcats.
